YESTech Wins 2006 Service Excellence Award

YESTech Gets Highest Honors for Test and Inspection Equipment

San Clemente, CA – February 27, 2006 – YESTech, a leading supplier of automated inspection and yield enhancement systems for the electronics industry, has won the coveted Service Excellence Award for 2006 from Circuits Assembly Magazine, which was announced on Wednesday, February 8, 2006, at the APEX Expo in Anaheim, Calif.

For the 14th consecutive year, Circuits Assembly has sponsored the awards program by recognizing the companies receiving the highest customer service ratings, as judged by their own customers, during a ceremony at the APEX Expo. YESTech's honors were awarded for its outstanding customer service achievements in the field of Test and Inspection Equipment.

"Winning this award means more to us at YESTech than any other industry award," said Don Miller, YESTech's President and CEO. "Customer service and genuine concern for our customers has been the underlying foundation of our success, and has been a commitment by every YESTech employee from the beginning. We're very proud to receive this recognition from an industry leader of the caliber of Circuits Assembly, and are extremely grateful for the support of our customers. Our pledge is to continue this high standard of customer support as we continue to grow."
