YESTech Recognized as Entrepreneur and PriceWaterhouseCoopers' Hot 100

YESTech named one of America's Fastest Growing New Companies for 2nd year in a row

San Clemente, CA – May 31, 2006 – YESTech, an innovative provider of yield enhancement solutions for the electronics industry announced today it has been selected by Entrepreneur Magazine and PriceWaterhouseCoopers' for the 12th Annual 'Hot 100' list of America's Fastest-Growing New Businesses. YESTech moved up four spots with this year's 32nd ranking, and received the highest ranking of any technology company in its sales bracket. The new Hot 100 list appears in Entrepreneur Magazine's June, 2006 issue.

Entrepreneur Magazine chose YESTech based on its growth rate, sales, capital investments and business performance. Two years ago the Company purchased property and established headquarters in San Clemente, Calif. where management, engineering, sales, marketing and customer service teams are based.

During the past year YESTech has introduced several new products, including the YTX-3000 HXR x-ray inspection system, the B2 Benchtop AOI system, and F1 AOI system. With its international growth in mind, YESTech has also expanded its regional offices in Singapore, China, and the UK to better support sales and support efforts in the international marketplace.
